

Mancherial

Mancherial, natively spelt as Mancheryala, is a city and headquarters of the Mancherial district of the Indian state of Telangana. It is both the district and administrative headquarters of Mancherial mandal in the Mancherial revenue division.^[11] It is located on the north banks of the Godavari River.^{[12][13]} It is located about 244 kilometres (152 mi) from the state capital, Hyderabad, 84 kilometres (52 mi) from Karimnagar, 138 kilometres (86 mi) from Nirmal and 155 kilometres (96 mi) from Adilabad.

History

Historically, it was part of Adilabad District, but now it is a separate district by itself. It was, until as recently as less than a hundred years ago, rich in forest resources and many small scale & large scale industries but was of little economic and political importance.^[14] Gonds mainly depended on farming for their livelihoods.^[15] After the Singareni Collieries Company coal mines were established in the region, it became industrialised. During the 1970s, an Industrial training institute was opened there.^[16]

Demographics

As of the 2011 census of India, Mancherial has a population of 228,450.^{[22][23]} Males constitute 51% of the total population and females 49%. Mancherial has an average literacy rate of 75.71%, higher than the national average: male literacy is 83.16%, and female literacy is 67.92%. In Mancherial, 8% of the population is under 6 years of age.

The majority of people in the area practice Hinduism, followed by Islam and Christianity. Telugu is the most widely spoken language.

Civic Governance

The Mancherial Municipality was originally constituted as a third-grade municipality in 1952 and was upgraded to first-grade municipality status in 2003 to accommodate the growing population and urban needs.^[24] On January 4, 2025, the Government of Telangana issued a gazette notification elevating it to Municipal Corporation status by merging the existing Mancherial Municipality and Naspur Municipality with eight surrounding gram panchayats from Hajipur mandal: Pochampad, Gudipet, Narsingapur, Namnur, Chandanagar, Mulkala, Kothapalli, and Vempalli.^[25] This merger
